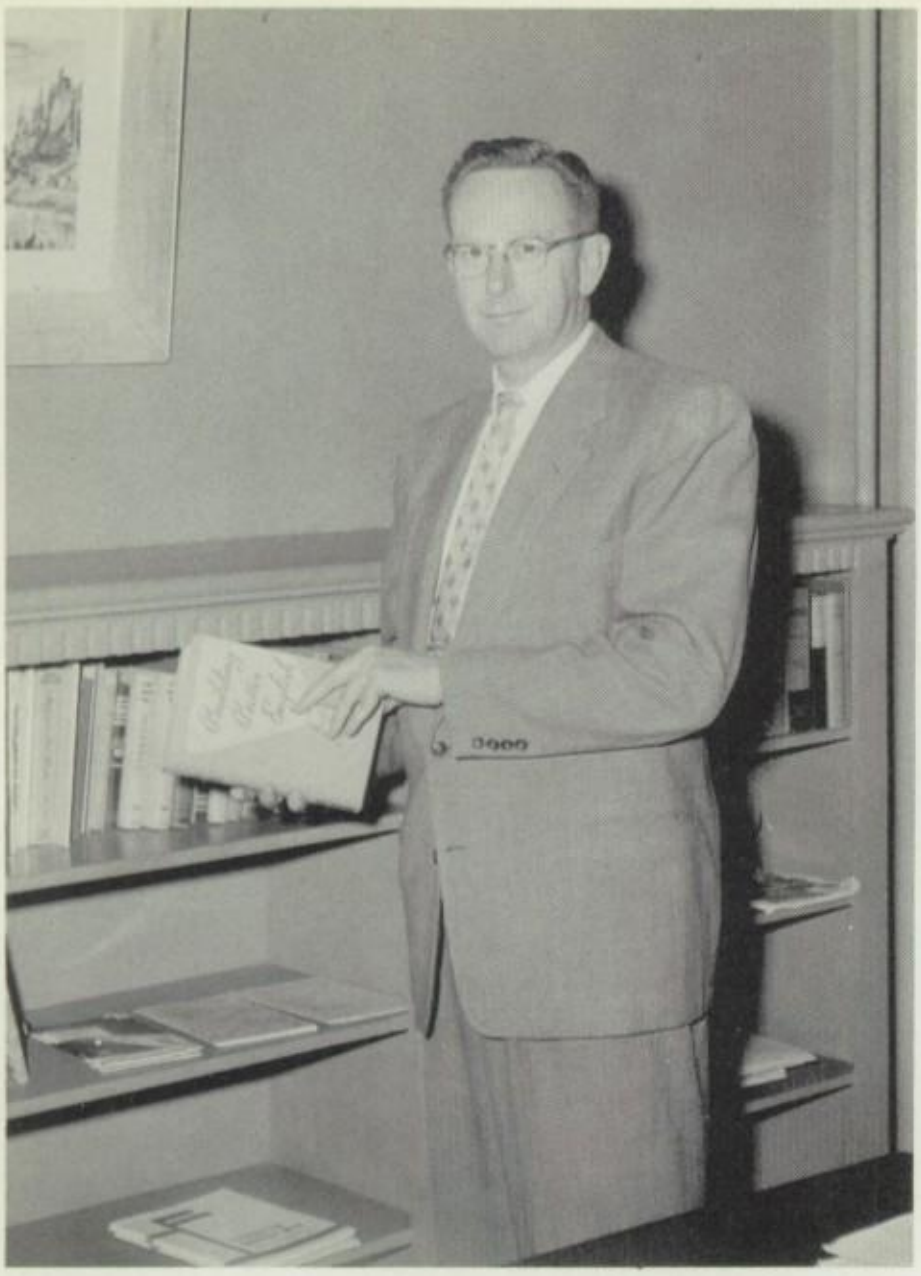
BRUIN

1959

As we walk the path away, there are many things we wish to remember about our days at Briarcliff. This book is a collection of memories. We hope to express these memories which characterize Briarcliff: its individuals and its atmosphere.

During his three years at Briarcliff, Mr. Barrett has greatly improved the math department; has worked hard in coaching football and golf and in advising the Student Council. He has always given willingly and generously of his free time. Most important to us, he is a teacher who is a friend, a friend with a wonderful dry sense of humor, whom we will love, respect, and remember for the rest of our lives. Thus we, the class of 1959, dedicate our yearbook, the BRUIN, to Mr. Harry Barrett.



Mr. Hollis L. Desoe, High School Principal.

THE ADMINISTRATION is the organizing body of Briarcliff. Before we embark on the day's work they are busy seeing that all runs smoothly.

Dr. Forbes H. Norris, District Principal.

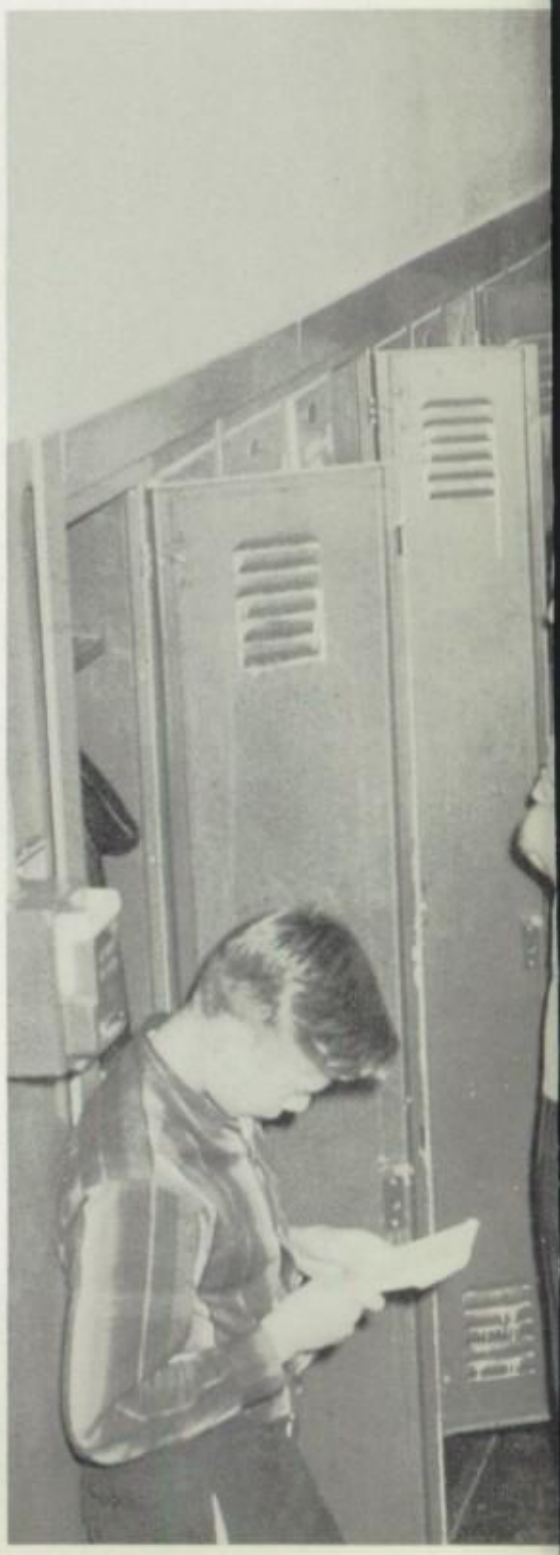
GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT: Miss Ruth Johns.

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANTS: Miss Koller, Miss Kelly, Mrs. Garvey.

OFFICE STAFF: Mrs. Barr, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Smoke.

STILL DREAMING, we pile off the bus and stagger up the stairs. Then, into the halls we're on our weary way. It's funny how everyone looks alike in the morning . . .

Sleepwalking.



Bracing up for a new day.

EVEN THE TEACHERS look as if they would have relished another forty winks, but when the first period bell rings . . .

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT: Mr. Goodman, Mr. Gurka, Mrs. Coe, Miss Spicer, Miss Wilhelm.

LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT: Miss Andrews, Mrs. Nordberg, Mr. Stevens.

CITIZENSHIP EDUCATION DEPARTMENT: Mrs. Darkenwald, Mr. Farrell, Mr. Jordan.

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT: Mr. Coe, Mr. Schauffler, Mr. Beller, Mr. Brennan, Mr. Barrett, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Ohnmacht.

"The whole art of teaching is only the art of awakening the natural curiosity of young minds for the purpose of satisfying it afterwards." This quotation may seem to simplify the job of the teacher, but, in actuality, it is the key to teaching and a terribly difficult task. Oftimes a student's curiosity seems to be buried deep within him. There is for most everyone of us a special teacher who is also a friend and an outlet for our victories and defeats.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT: Mr. Johnson, Mr. Ohnmacht, Mr. Brennan, Mr. Jass, Mr. Coe, Mr. Starr, Mr. Cormier.

COMMERCIAL: Miss Whittemore, Mr. Rosen.

RELATED ARTS: Mrs. Creighton, Mr. Likes, Mr. Burgess.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION: Mrs. Brown, Mr. Bowers.

CAFETERIA STAFF: Mrs. Baker, Miss McNamara, Mrs. Creeden, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Compiglione.

CUSTODIANS: Ed Baker, Ted Williams, Les Murphy, Jim Duck, Sam Brown.

Is this class early again?

Senior English

My English class is very strange indeed —
This year we must create and then compose.
We never see the books we used to read,
Nor rules to us familiar, I suppose.

Instead we enter contests more and more
And then write words for our anthology.
And now we use a form not seen before:
To write the style of years ago, you see.

Oh why, oh why, have we this chore to do?
To count the beats and make each line have five,
And then to rhyme each line, one two, one two.
I don't know why it is I'm still alive.

Oh Shakespeare, Petrarch, you possessed the skill,
But me, I try and try and never will.

Casey Jones

FIRST PERIOD is usually pretty dreary, except for those privileged seniors who face Miss Spicer's cheery countenance over the desks.

Organized chaos

ON TO SECOND PERIOD . . . We're only one period away from the mid-morning slump.

But I can't see a thing!

You learn through the seat of your pants.

Drums

Beat, beat, beat,
Knock it,
Come on, Come on man.
Those drums, those drums
Sending the beat,
The beat to your toes, fingertips.
That sensual feeling overcomes you.
You're lost.
You're in beat with the drums.
Faster, faster,
Beat, beat, beat,
The beat of the drums has you.
You're under a spell
Which can be broken only by quiet.
Yield, yield,
You can't resist.
Go, go,
Don't stop.
Don't try to stop.
Don't fight it.
Don't stop.
Yield.
Faster, faster,
Reach the peak, reach the peak,
Drop, stop,
You're exhausted
The beat, the beat is gone
The frenzy is dead.

Loretta Holloway

Take me to your leader.

Is Mrs. Bowen watching?

SOCIAL HOUR coming up: tea is being served. Mr. Barrett and company engage in an hour of scintillating conversation.

The criteria of the situation . . .

Manifold activities take place during 5th period . . .

For those inspired toward music it may be chorus . . .

Whatever his pleasure, one cannot but think of the coming of the magic hour, 3:23. At this time intellectual pursuits are forgotten and sports take precedence.

THE FOOTBALL SEASON is an exciting one for Briarcliff. The clean, autumn weather enhances our spirit and brings many to the games. Win or lose, it matters not. We are united for The Cause; to play well. This year with the inimitable Mr. Barrett at the helm, our team, in spite of many obstacles, played many good games and we salute them!

The Chair

It has been said that a lazy man invented the chair. Lacking the energy to remain constantly on his feet, he exploits this device as a crutch to his endurance. However, I believe the inventor was a sagacious man; to conserve his strength was his aim.

An opportunity to sharpen his mental agility is afforded the man who molds his shape to an armchair and allows himself the luxury of concentration of thought. Stationary in his chair, the thinking man reflects, plans his course of action, and then rises to make his thoughts speak.

Years of time, millions of dollars, and great amounts of energy and worry would be saved if man would sit down on his invention and consider his best course of action before he becomes too deeply involved in his own mistakes. In the future, I hope all men learn to utilize the chair.

Life

Life is similar to climbing a great mountain whose top is our goal. Throughout life one experiences tribulations to endure, pleasures to enjoy, and challenges to overcome. On the mountain too, there is hardship and danger, but beautiful scenery and the feeling of accomplishment fill the heart.

In weighing pleasure and pain together, we find that pleasure overbalances pain. Pain enables us to appreciate pleasure, and therefore pain is pleasure, for the greatness of something pleasant is the very appreciation of it, without which there would be nothing. Since pleasure is stronger than suffering or pain, we are rewarded for accepting the challenge to climb our own mountain.

Because man is always searching for something better, goals cannot be fulfilled in this world, but some may be in the next; life is eternal for those who make use of the climb of life to attain good.

Last Will and Testament

PAT RYAN leaves for the Barbados and her playboys.
MARILYN BLANCHARD and her mother leave Miss Spicer's English class.
JOAN LESCARBOURA leaves her giggle to Anne Christie.
BONNIE KEYSER and JUDY SKLAR leave the Bulletin to its own devices.
TIZ leaves to drag ANNE GOLDWATER in their Renaults.
PEGGY KOCHMAN leaves in a state of confusion.
BARBARA ACKERLY and EMILY CHO leave Mr. Matthews trying to pick out a tune on the piano.
SUSAN SCORALICK leaves her dimples to the great stone-face, Mr. Barrett.
AUDREY KRIZAN and REGINA DENARO leave their best-seller, The Gentle Art of Flirting, to the Junior girls.
BRIAN KELLY leaves blushing.
GALE SHEUERMAN leaves Mrs. Creighton's Home Ec. class.
JUDY MALLONEE and JUDEE WHITE leave their wit to the Junior humorist, Sue Heim.
JUDIE VAN leaves her French III books to Mickey.
THERESA KOVACH leaves her petiteness to Jehane Bush.
CHRIS GRUENINGER and FRED GURNEY leave their bass voices to the Freshman boys.
JOHN FITZPATRICK and JOHN SCHUMACHER leave Pete and Mrs. Pete without soda-jerks.
MARIAN SMITH, GLADYS SHIPMAN, LINDA BRODEN, LUCILLE EARLANDT, and CAROL GRINAGER leave their gentle manners to be divided among Carol Davies, Loretta King, Joanne Selino.
TOM CASEY leaves his title, "King of Arkansas," to Mike Rosen.
ED BURT leaves his Austin in a ditch.
ELAINE ANDERSON leaves her athletic ability to Worthen Fatherly.
BILL McGOVERN and BILL FEIDT leave as quietly as they came.
ANNAMAE BIBBO leaves her Latin looks to April Cordes.
SULLY and GILLIS leave their extra pounds to Helen Keller and Sue Burdick.
CHARLYNN WRIGHT leaves her cigarette butts strewn throughout the parking lot.
FRED BARTKIEWICZ leaves in his T-Bird to drag a Corvette.
HELENE KLIESCH leaves her height to Carol Garvey.
MARTY RABE, ALEX GRIMBERG, and BILL GERN are in a hurry to leave — the fire whistle just blew.
LINDA KING leaves her complete wardrobe to the chic Miss Consorte.
RANDY FRANKEN leaves his string-bean look to Benjie Butler.
SUZY HOTALING leaves Mr. Stevens' Latin II class with a sigh.
JOE KENT leaves his neat appearance to Jon McNamara.
VIC MILLER leaves his sense of humor to Bruce Matthews.
DAN CRAWFORD leaves his mild manner to Leigh Werneken.
BARBARA ERICKSON and CHIPPY VANSCZSKA leave their unique voices to Andrea Shulman.
SHARON BURKE leaves her long hair to Miss Spicer.
DUKE MARSTON leaves his dancing shoes to Dave Gasparik.
RALPH MULLIGAN and LORETTA HOLLOWAY leave their cameras to the photography editors of next year's BRUIN.
STEVE LOCKE leaves his conservative outlook to next year's student council president.
ALLEN BELKNAP and GAFF leave their fluent French to Colin Cass.
EARL WASHBURN leaves his famous (or infamous) cha-cha-cha to Robin Maisel.
RUSTY NIPPERT leaves his curly hair to Marilyn Romaine.
JOE KLASS leaves his Tales of Triumph to the library.
BART BOWER leaves his scientific ability to Rusty Lewis.
LARRY HILL leaves to make room for brother Rodney.
DICK MORGAN, JOHN ZIFICSAC, and JACK MELDRUM leave — this time for sure.
DIANE BONIFACE leaves her cheery disposition to Bea Holmes who really doesn't need it.
BILLY JOYNES leaves his sign The South Will Rise Again to Mr. Farrell.
BONNIE BINGHAM leaves all her Bermuda shorts to Mrs. Brown.
CASEY JONES leaves her efficiency to Barbara Duvoisin.
ELLEN MELNICK leaves her bottle of Light and Bright to her sister, Judy.
EDDIE COLLINS leaves his glasses in the pool.
BRUCE BANKER leaves his "Ivyness" to Harry Shipman.
OWEN WYERS leaves along with his New England accent.
JOHN CHURCHILL leaves his good looks to Lee Franken.
ANNE BYARD leaves her oil paintings to Mr. Likes.
GEORGE PLUMER leaves his solemnity to Kathleen McTeigue.
FRANK TRISCHITTA leaves for the barbershop where he will submit to a crew-cut at last.
GEOFF JONES leaves Mr. Jordan freezing with the windows open.
MARA ALKSNIS leaves her artistic talent to Judy Taylor, who can't even write neatly.
BOB CARRETTA leaves his drums to Doug Mathewson.
LUCKY BARBER, MARK DEIGHTON, LAWRIE LETIECO and PAUL CIFALDI will leave if all goes well.
